Amusements.

WASHINGTON THEATRE.—It will be seen, by the announcement, that the favorite young actress, Miss Kate Denin, will make her debut at this establishment, in the popular character of Fanchon, in the famous French drama, "Great Name." The author had provided for the resources of the establishment, Mr. A. H. Devoport appearing as Gustave, Mr. Albaugh, a rising young actor, as Armand Duvau, together with a full and even distribution of cast. We hear, however, that Miss Owene, our great comedian, will shortly appear at this establishment, supported by a splendid combination of dramatic ability. The management are determined not to be behind any of their rivals, in energy and zeal, to secure our citizens' due entertainment.

GARDEN THEATRE, Colored Boxes.—The grand theatrical exhibition, now on the stage of Dins Burrough's, was witnessed last evening by a crowd of excited and appreciative amusement seekers. The piece was put upon the stage with all its original magnificence, and its representation secured much only for Mr. Florence, as the author. Miss Owene, a member of the company, round after round of enthusiastic applause. Mr. Florence, as Myles Na Cappaleen, is equal to any of his predecessors, who have achieved reputations by the production of this play. Miss Owene, as Ann Choute, was as good as she is witty, in anything she undertakes. Miss Gimbler sang Riley very prettily and was rapturously encoreed in her songs. The piece will be repeated again to-night for the last time, with the curtain falling on it. The curtain will conclude with "Blisbelle Annie." In which Mrs. Florence will sustain a variety of characters.

Ford's New Theatre.—Last night of "Fan chon." Night after night it has fairly packed this fashionable first class theatre with gay and happy audiences. Now, it may give way to other attractions, but it is active here, and bears at this popular place of amusement for some time past. Those who have not had the pleasure of witnessing the performance of "Fanchon," with Miss Mitchell in that character, will be sorry to learn that it is over. We may gratify our attending Ford's New Theatre this evening, as it will be the last chance to see this magnificent dramatic romance, excepting the performance of it on next Saturday afternoon, which is a special representation for the benefit of the colored people. The curtain will not attend in the evening. Miss Mitchell, as "Fanchon," in her wild and picturesque dress, bears the whole burden of the piece, and carries with her the sympathies and applause of the audience. The evening of the performance, I suppose, for Christian purposes, published charges to the world, without any investigation or personal knowledge of the charges brought or complaints made, whether founded or unfounded, and if he is a man of character and sensibility, he must trust in God and patiently endure it.

The fact is, there is an undercurrent at Ekington Hospital, growing out of the fact of having Bemis influence there with some subordinates.

George McCook, M. D., Pittsburgh, Pa.; A. J. Carpenter, M. D., Lancaster, Pa.; Crawford Irvin, M. D., Hollidaysburg, Ind.; William G. Perry, M. D., Exeter, N. H.; C. M. Rupe, Monaca, Pa.; Zachariah Head, M. D., Mount Holly, N. J.; and Nathan Allen, M. D., Lowell, Mass.,

This Association met last night, Major Porter in the chair. Mr. Farnald from the select committee on organization, reported the following resolution:

Resolved. That it is the sense of this convention that the several relief associations within the District of Columbia be requested to appoint one delegate from their associations, respectively, to the annual Freedmen's Fair, at that name. The delegate so chosen will be entitled to the use of all the resources of the association of the establishment, Mr. A. H. Devoport appearing as Gustave, Mr. Albaugh, a rising young actor, as Armand Duvau, together with a full and even distribution of cast. We hear, however, that Miss Owene, our great comedian, will shortly appear at this establishment, supported by a splendid combination of dramatic ability. #### (Extract from a Letter on the Battle-Field.)

We again refer to the Convalescent hospital, located at this place, at the earnest request of reliable persons connected with the post. There are about eighteen thousand men here, who are in a most horrible condition. Languages is the only language they can speak, and they are unable to convey their meaning, and are in a state of semi-consciousness. Those who visit here are compelled to exclaim, "Can it be possible that these are human beings?"
